THE WORLD NO. 1 PLATFORM FOR RUSSIAN ART+CULTURE

RUSSIAN ART+CULTURE was launched in 2011 as an independent English-language website covering all aspects of Russian and Eastern European culture and the arts.

Content is updated daily with listings of selected events from all over the world, exclusive interviews with world renowned professionals on the Russian cultural scene, reviews of the latest books, exhibitions and performances, research articles and opinion pieces as well as the latest reports on the Russian art market.

Contributors are among the best specialists in their field, among them Simon Hewitt, Ian Christie, and former RBCC Head, Stephen Dalziel.

The website regularly features interviews with prominent figures such as Natalia Osipova, Oscar Rabin, Erik Bulatov, Oleg Kulik, Piotr Pavlensky, Igor Tsukanov, Marat Guelman, Mikhail Baryshnikov, Maria Alexandrova, Katie Mitchell and Andrey Zvyagintsev to name but a few.

Russian Art+Culture created RUSSIAN ART WEEK in London – a bi-annual event that co-ordinates the leading auctions of Russian Art at Sotheby's, Christies, MacDougalls, Bruun Rasmussen and Bonhams with similar Russian-themed exhibitions and cultural events taking place in London. Tying these events together, Russian Art+Culture publishes a comprehensive OFFICIAL RUSSIAN ART WEEK GUIDE providing insight and coverage of the most important events and topics.

Russian Art+Culture regularly organises screenings, talks, book launches, exhibitions and private art tours and has been featured in The Times, Daily Telegraph, FT, The Art Newspaper, Huffington Post, and Blouin ArtInfo.

WELCOME

The November 2017 publication of the Russian Art + Culture Guide marks three anniversaries of varying importance. The centenary of the Russian Revolution, 5th Anniversary of Russian Art + Culture and one year since the beginning of my tenure as RA+C owner.

Our site and guide remain the quintessential touchstones for spreading Russia-related cultural news - be it auction sales, book launches, musical and theatrical performances, exhibitions, lectures, or subjects related to the history, language and cultural development of Russia.

In this issue, Simon Hewitt, our international advisor, reviews the forthcoming auction sales and interview Marat Guelman, curator of Art Riot at the Saatchi Gallery, whilst Juliet Bingham talks about her role as curator of the Ilya and Emilia Kabakov retrospective at Tate Modern.

To the roster of London auction houses announcing their Russian sales, we are delighted to add the names of Braun Rasmussen from Copenhagen and Stockholm Auktionsverk.

RA+C will continue to offer a variety of exciting events throughout the year to its readership, and I hope you will enjoy our coverage. It has been a busy year, brimming over with educational and cultural events, and we are grateful for your continued support.
